Letoia Also Wins Easily for W. B. Jennings —R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Gamara Takes the Zephyr Stakes—Blandy Gallops Home—Ormonde's Right Beats Mincola

Two races were wen for Walter B. Jennings at Sheepshead Bay yesterday by his fleet-footed fillies Dainty and Letola. In the Thistle Stakes Dainty fairly stunned the form players by coming home alone with 7 to 1 about her; This race was a decidedly open betting affair, with H. B. Duryea's Whorler favorite at 8 to 5, and plenty of backing for Dekaber, Sheriff Bell, Wild Thyme and the Thomas pair, Palmbearer and Buttons. There was much disorder at the post, and when the gate went up Butat the post, and when the gate went up Buttons and Bob Murphy were practically left. Gay Boy and Whorler went off in front at a pace that finally killed them both. On the farturn Crimmins moved up with Dainty, and inside of the next furlong she had left her company behind, coming home on the bit with six lengths to spare in 1:52, a new record for the track. Buttons, meanwhile, had run completely around the field after his poor getaway, and with a game rush succeeded in taking the place from Whorler by a head.
Gay Boy was two lengths back.
Sydney Paget's Diamond, odds on favorite in the Zephyr Stakes for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs, Futurity Course, finished outside of the money, although he was leading at the bend in the track. His defeat, however, was chiefly due to the fact that his headstall slipped back around his neck so that it choked him effectively. In a driving finish R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Gamara, 8 to 1, an added starter, got up in time to win by a half a length from P. J. Dwyer's Red Friar, 4 to 1. Pasadena, 15 to 1, was the same distance behind. The time was 1:08 3-5.

Letola was the choice at twos in a field of nineteen starters in the first race at six and a half furlongs, straight away, in which apprentice jockeys had the mounts. She assumed the lead at the elbow and galloped home a winner, two and a half lengths before Cincinnatus, 15 to 1, with Pen Longin, 20 to 1, a couple of lengths away. Turquoise Blue, a heavily played second choice, never showed the looked for speed. The time was 1:20 2-5. C. F. Fox's good mare Ascension, with 114 pounds in the handicap at a mile, was returned an easy winner by two lengths in the excellent time of 1:39 4-5. P. J. Gor-man's Jack Ratlin, 8 to 1, ran into the place. a length before J. E. Seagram's imported colt Persistence II., played down to fives. Although Newton Bennington's Blandy went back in the betting to 3 to 5, he romped home in the fifth event, for two-year-olds, at six furlongs on the main track. He left the others at the head of the stretch and won by five lengths in 1:14 3-5. It was a close fit for the place, the Albemarle Stable's Bella Signora, a 100 to 1 shot, taking it by a head from the National Stable's Invader, a strongly from the National Stable's Invader, a strongly backed second choice. Mike Clancy's Delcanta, backed down to sevens, ran far below expectations.

The closest finish of the day occurred in the last race, when Sydney Paget's Ormonde's Right, who was an equal favorite with P. Ryan's Honiton at 0 to 5, got up in the last stride and defeated H. B. Duryea's Mineola, 2 to 1, by a nose. The Waldeck Stable's Requiter, 100 to 1, was third, ten lengths away, and a length in front of Honiton, who chucked it up early in the struggle. The time, 1:46 4-5, was three-fifths of a second slower than the best record for the course. Four favorites wen and 12,000 persons enjoyed the healthful outing.

A. SHIELDS FAILS TO WIN $30,000 ON BUTTONS. Yeager Does Not Bet on Hildebrand's Two Winning Mounts-A Wager of $10,000

Dropped on Whorler-"Get Rich" Ryan to Sell Reliable and Other Horses. In the absence of E. R. Thomas, Alexander Shields, his clever racing partner, attempted to execute a coup in the Thistle Stakes yesterday that would have cost the ring more than $30,000 if it had been successful. The big stable was represented in the race by Palm-bearer and Buttons, and Shields went into the ring himself, instead of sending a com-missioner. It was just as the horses came out of the paddock that Shields began to go down the line. There was all the 7 to 1 that he wanted, and he got down a wager with almost every layer in the pavilion until he had placed about $4,500 straight. But for an unlucky breaksway from the post Buttons might have won the race, but because of this mishap the Tenny gelding could not finish better than second. The Thomas horses are all pretty fit just now, and the stable has been cashing with unpleasant regularity ever since Hermis won the Suburban. It was only hard luck, Shields believed, after the race, that prevented him from taking another effective crack at the bankrolls.

Joe Yeager did not do much betting during the afternoon. He failed to place a bet on either Ascension or Gamara, who won the second and third races respectively, with Hildebrand in the saddle. Yeager had a small wager on Whorler, who was badly beaten, and then waited for the last race before making another move. In that event he laid against Honiton and took in thousands, including a part of a heavy commis-sion sent into the ring by John A. Drake, and bet on both Ormonde's Right and Mineola to beat the Western filly. Yeager laid against Honiton because in the West she never showed a disposition to go more than three-quarters of a mile. All of the California books followed Yeager's example in this respect.

A commission of $10,000 was wagered on Whorler. George Wheelock placed $5,000 of it, while John Walters and Eddie Burke got the balance down. It was rumored that the money belonged to Whorler's owner. Whorler is essentially a mud horse and has weak underpinning, according to the paddock

Frank Hays, who won $60,000 on four races the other day, cleared up $5,000 on Letola in the first race, but bet it all back on invader in the fifth. Bookmaker Leo Mayer had $2,50 on Letola, too, The Canadians framed up a killing with J. E. Seagram's Persistence II. in the second race, backing him down from tens to fives. It was the best race that this colt ever ran, but he could not land better than third. Mr. Seagram bought him in England from King Edward, who bred him. The colt is by Persimmon out of Laodamia. Al Dryer bet $2,000 on Jack Ratlin at 8 to 1 in this race, while P. J. Gorman and other Western speculators were also aboard. They did not look for a victory by Ascension, because they believed the Ben Strome mare had too heavy a package.

The clubhouse commissioners set it in heavily on Diamond to win the Zephyr Stakes, probably $25,000 being placed on the Hastings colt. Very few speculators of note suc-seeded in beating this race, although Red Friar was liberally supported for the place.

During the speculation on the fifth event a Wall Street man went the rounds taking Bella Signora to win at 100 and 200 to 1. He bet $5 or $10 in every book, and offered to wager as much as $50 in some instances. The Henry of Navarre filly ran second at 25 to 1 for the place, and many wondered why the Wall Street man did not play her that way. If she had won, he would have pocketed about $50,000, it was estimated.

It is said that during the last few days there has been a surprising lack of cash betting in the ring, most of the business being done on the credit or marker system. The layers, therefore, are pining for a big rowd to-day.

John J. Ryan, the "get-rich-quick" man has decided to sell all of his horses the last day of the Sheepshead Bay meeting. He will include Reliable in the list, even though the Watercress horse has enabled him to win $100,000 in bets since he bought him at the Whitney sale for $6,800. Just why Ryan has concluded to sell his horses nobody seems to know, but it is a fact that he has a poor lot of two-year-olds who have not been able to earn feed bills this season.

"I have come to the conclusion that Whorld is a poor horse," said Charley White, the well known boxing referee, now a full fledged horseman, after the defeat of the Inverness gelding. "I owned Whorler once, for I bought him as a yearling for $1,000 and entered him in several valuable stakes. But before he ever raced 1 sold him to John E. Madden for $2,500 and later Madden disposed of him to Messrs. Whitney and Duryea for $17,500. Immediately after that transaction Whorler won the Brooklyn Derby for his new owner. When Newton Bennington learned that the layers had opened Blandy at 2 to 5 in the fifth race, he concluded not to bet on the game little Hastings colt, but later, when the price went back to 3 to 5, and 7 to 10, the tall turf-man went into the ring and bet on the youngster. Trainer Fred Berlew also sailed up to the layers with a $1,500 wager, an unusually the layers with a $1,500 wager, an unusually large bet for him.

Schilling, the apprentice who rode Letola so skilfully in the first race, is under the protecting wing of Archie Zimmer. Schilling was handling a clothes brush in the barber shop of a New Orleans Hotel last winter. One day, after Zimmer had been shaved, Schilling, as he brushed the big trainer down, schilling, as he brushed the big trainer down, told him that his only ambition was to be a jockey. Zimmer took the midget at his word and gave him a chance to exercise some of his horses. The boy took to riding like a duck to water and says now that he will make some to water and says now that he will make some of the veterans hustle before he gets through with the game.

J. Jones went before the stewards after the second race with a protest of foul against the winner, Ascension. He said that as he reached the beginning of the far turn with New York, Ascension bumped into Careless, who was thrown into New York, compelling him to pull up. Odom, who rode Careless, was questioned by the stewards, who finally decided to make no change in the official placing.

R. W. Nelson was fined $10 by the stewards for not having the right colors on Cheripe

BOSTON, June 24.—McGraws men made it four straight by defeating Boston again this afternoon. The "Iron Man" was at his best, although he has pitched four games within a week, and allowed but three hits. McGraw sent his star twirler to the slab because Taylor is ill and he was anxious to get to-day's game.

Mathewson is out of the game for the present, as he split his hand yesterday, and last night a surgeon put in two stitches to close up the wound. McGinnity was willing to work, as the day was to his liking, and he fooled the locals badly.

It looked like a case of whitewash for the locals until the ninth inning. Only two hits had been secured off McGinnity up to that period and but one man reached third, Needham getting there through Mertes's muf of Geler's fiy in the sixth when two men were already out.

Bostony's half of the ninth was a fine finish ham getting there through Mertes's mun of Geier's fly in the sixth when two men were already out.

Boston's half of the ninth was a fine finish to a good game. Geier hit to Dahlen and the batsman was safe on the shortstop's fumble. Tenney hit to Gilbert, forcing Geier at second. Cannell drew a pass, but Carney hopped one up in the air to Gilbert. The fans thought it was all over, when Abbatichlo stepped to the plate. "Batty" picked out a nice one and drove a terrific liner to left. Mertes came in on the run to take the ball, but it struck the ground and bounded far out into left. Mertes was so disgusted that he refused to go after the ball and Abbaticchio made the circuit, Tenney and Cannell scoring shead of him. Delehanty bunted foul as he supposed, but the ball rolled in fair and went by McGann. Delehanty then started for first, but Gilbert came down and fielded the ball, making the third out. The score:

BROOKLYN, 4: PHILADELPHIA (N. L.), 3.

The Brooklyns made another whirlwind wind-up, accompanied by victory, yesterday the second within two days. As on Thursday they were two runs behind when they lined up for the ninth inning. The Garrison finish of the day before was fresh in their minds, and they were full of determination. Babb bunted safely. Four balls put Reldy on first base, and then Babb beat a throw of McCormick's grounder to third, this filling the bases. Bergen flied to Barry, and Jones forced Babb at the plate. This dampened hope somewhat, but Dobbs did the trick with a single to centre that scored Reidy and McCormick.

Hits by Dobbs and Dillon and an infield hit gave the Brooklyns a run in the eight; and hits by Bergen and Dobbs gave them one in the fifth. Dobbs's timely batting really won the game for the home team. It was an interesting contest because, if for no other reason, there was a fair amount of free hitting and more than usual in these fewhit, foul-strike days.

What little pitching Wiltse has done has been gilt edged. In his last two games his opponents made six hits and one run.

"BUNC" FIGHT ON A BARGE. Buffale Sports Pay $5 Each for a Sail and a Three Round Go.
Burralo, June 24.—It cost 100 sporting men $5 each to see a fight on a barge on Lake men $5 each to see a fight on a barge on Lake Erie last night between Curley Supples and Kid Fredericks. Supples had a sore knee, and that is presumably the reason be lasted only three rounds, when his seconds dipped water out of the lake to revive him. Supples was twelve pounds overweight and in no condition to stand a battle. He tried to keep away from Fredericks, and succeeded in doing so until a blow in the stomach put him out.

When the barge landed on its return trip, Rod McMahon, the bookmaker, was asked to describe the fight. "Suno," said he, and all the others agreed with him. AMERICAN LEAGUE.

New Yorks Keep Up Their Fast Streak, Taking a Ten Inning Game. The New York Americans had to go ten innings in Washington yesterday, but they won, as they usually do. They have won thirteen games and lost six on the present trip—great work. They made further in-roads into Boston's lead yesterday, Boston again losing to Philadelphia. The Chicagos, who also are playing great ball, shut out

WASHINGTON, June 24.—With another strong batting rally at the eleventh hour the New Yorks captured an exceedingly close ten inning game from the Washingtons in the last contest of the series to-day, making it four straight.

Patten was opposed to Hughes in the box, and an unusually well played game ensued for nine innings, when the visitors took their extra turn at bat with an irresistible determination to win and batted out a victory handily. Jimmy Williams began the rally with the first hit of the game, for a single, handly. Jimmy Williams began the rally with the first hit of the game, for a single, advanced to third on Anderson's two-sacker and scored on Ganzel's fly to Cassidy. McGuire's single scored Anderson, and Osteen's double put McGuire on third, where he was caught off the bag. Thoney was the third out and the game had been placed out of the local team's reach.

After the first inning, when the Washingtons bunched four of their seven hits, Hughes pitched in invincible form, retring them in order for seven innings, while he struck out seven batsmen, and only one man was left on base after the second inning.

Thoney made a remarkable catch of a foul fly with his outstretched right hand while going at full tilt, extending himself almost horizontally. The score:

DAINTY SURPRISES TALENT. TO-DAYS CARD FOR SHEEPSHEAD. Remarkable Field Named to Go in Advance

Stakes. If all the horses named go in the Advance If all the horses named go in the Advance Stakes, weight for age, one mile and three furlongs, at Sheepshead Bay this afternoon, the public will probably see one of the greatest races of the year. Four of the best three-year-olds in training, Bryn Mawr, Delhi, Ort Wells and Highball, each carrying ill pounds, will meet the older horses, Major Daingerfield, with 128, and Irish Lad and The Picket, sach with 128. As Ort Wells made a show of each with 128. As Ort Wells made a show of Delhi in the Tidal Stakes and Bern Mawr defeated Highball in the Brooklyn Derby, they Delhi in the Tidal Stakes and Ran Mawr defeated Highball in the Brooklyn Derby, they will probably receive the preference in the figures, making them have a chance to beat the others. But The Picket, who has twice taken the measure of Irish Lad in the Brooklyn and Suburban hundicape, will have a strong following, no doubt. For the Great Trial Stakes, for two-year-olds, at six furlongs, Futurity course, R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Sparkling Star will probably be the public's selection, although he will have some good youngsters pitted against him, notably Fly Back, Right Royal and Voladay. A small but select field of jumpers is named for the Beacon Steeplechase. Reliable has received the heaviest burden yet imposed by W. S. Vosburgh this year. He is asked to shoulder 150 pounds in the high weight handicap at six furlongs, in which there are some good sprinters, including Lady Amelia, Colonsay, Hello, King Pepper and Only H. Major Daingerfield is also entered in the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth on the grass with top weight, but he will hardly go. Ben MacDhul, Leader, Florham Queen and Garnnish look the best of the others. In the fifth, for two-year-olds, Highborn, Lincroft, Virgo, Asterisk and Dance Music all figure well. this afternoon was sloppy. The weather this afternoon was fine and if it holds out that way the going to-morrow will be rather slow, but safe. Everything favors Hermis's starting. This will not, however, be definitely known until Mr. Thomas looks over the track to-morrow and makes his decision.

Early this morning, while it was still raining. Tom Hayes took Gold Heels out on the track and breezed him The soft footing proved very grateful to his leg and he pulled up sound and trim. Hayes was so encouraged that he immediately announced that he would start the horse. It is still unknown who Bullman will ride, unless it should be Judge Himes, though when Charlie Ellison was here a few days ago he stated positively that he would put up H. Booker. All indications favor an immense crowd. There seems greater interest in the race than in any one event ever given in St. Louis.

RACING ON OTHER TRACKS.

At Chicago. CEICAGO, June 24.—About 4,000 persons attended the reopening at Hawthorne to-day and the book-makers were kept busy during the afternoon. The track was apparently fast, although lumpy. isk hole final to-day a stirring mach and be the outcome. On their present game, next to Travis and Douglas, the two well deserve their prominence as the leaders of the Long island class.

The morning brought in Watson a winner over Knapp, his clubmate, after a good match, by 4 and 2. Watson was 8 up at the turn, with 41, and coming in with 37 he recorded his third successive 78. In the afternoon Watson lost the first two holes to young MacKellar and they were square at the turn, each having 43. A brace of 4s won the next two for the Westbrook player, and, although the youngster hung on most gamely Watson had the match by 3 and 2. For the seven holes Watson scored 31 and MacKellar 35. Going out in 40, Travers had Allen 4 down, and, with 5, 5, 4, 6, the interscholastic champion won out on the thirteenth. Sawyer only succeeded in beating Hubbell after three extra holes, but in the afternoon he could make no stand against Travers, who won by 8 and 6. Travers went out in 4, 4, 3, 5, 4, 6, 4, 4-37. Playing out the bye holes, he finished in 42, which included a 7 on the seventeenth.
